AND MORE HOW-TO CDS TO COME!

Drawn from Life; An Artist's Journal Volumes I and II

An artist's and longtime journal-keepers record of sketches, drawings, and nature observations over a period of 20 years; artist/writer/naturalist Cathy Johnson shares her journals. Johnson was Staff Naturalist for Country Living Magazine for 11 years; many of her articles began in her on the spot observations in her journals—here, you'll see the first sketches. She wrote and illustrated 10 natural history books, and some started here.

Also included are travel sketches, cats, dogs, people, history, daily life, imaginings and more—all through the eyes of one artist with sketchbook in hand. Hundreds of images on each CD, plus articles on beginning journal keeping, observing nature, field sketching and more.

Have you ever heard of a sketchcrawl? (If not, check here: <http://www.sketchcrawl.com/blog/>)

Cathy Johnson invites you to join her on a virtual tour of Historic Excelsior Springs, Missouri—draw from these copyright-free images or be inspired to come in person to draw this old spa town!

Take a virtual tour with artist/writer/naturalist Cathy Johnson! Johnson has lived in the Excelsior Springs, Missouri, area for over 30 years, and not only paints and sketches there often but finds places YOU will love, too. If you're a history buff, an artist, an architect, student, designer, scrapbooker, or just a romantic who would love to spend a weekend--or a week!--in this picturesque old town, then browse the images here and enjoy! Perhaps you've already discovered the town and would like a memento--this CD will give you just that! Make this an excuse for a sketchcrawl...draw or paint from the photos here, or be inspired to come for a visit. Here you will also find a map and a history of the area written by Sonya Morgan and used with her gracious permission, plus many old postcards from the Excelsior Springs Historical Museum. Over 375 images. (Sketchcrawl Tour #2 is in the works!)
